

Priya Bhagavad Bandhus !

Doing something good for ourselves and to our beloved ones is very natural, but, doing some service for the sake of the society needs wider heart and additional commitment. Devoting our services and resources for the sake of really deserved people living in our society, needs a lot of drive and heartfelt dedication like noble qualities. Those with noble qualities are really blessed for, God always favours them, of course, in His own way.

It is not what we enjoy that matters ever, but, how much we dedicate in the service of the really needful in the society, makes the significant mark ! Usually everybody is concerned only about the self and neglects / ignores about the welfare of the others and thinks that when it comes to me then I will see. By that time, the society around would have got rusted and it comes to final stages whence one has to obey the evil or the wicked. This is because of not realising the importance of service to the society, which actually, should be a regular activity of a responsible / educated / concerned person in the society. Unfortunately, even the educated person thinks that social welfare is somebody's responsibility ! When ANTHRAX or SARS spreads its attack we pay top most attention! Virus, when it starts any where in the body, we immediately take care of and same is the case even in a society. An evil practice or evil thought or an evil activity when ignored by the rest of the society, closing their doors and just guarding themselves safe, a time will definitely come that gives worst results.

Doing a social service activity is not somebody's duty or somebody's job. It is the responsibility of everyone in that society. The responsibility is more... on the more educated and the elite of the society. Howmuch ever small it be, but, one should do good for others and serve the society in some form that is most practical and within all the possible limits. Howmuch ever small the lamp is, but, when lit, it drives away so much of darkness. So also whatever we can do should be done! It is not only bad... in fact, a great injustice to God, to neglect the suffering section of our society when they are getting misled and mistaken.

*There is a story that goes like this... There are four people named Everybody, Somebody, Anybody and Nobody. There was an important job to be done and Everybody was sure that Somebody would do it. Somebody got angry about that because it was Everybody's job. Everybody thought Anybody could do it, but, Nobody realised that Everybody wouldn't do it. It ended up that Everybody blames Somebody when Nobody did what Anybody would have done. Let us not be on the losing side. REALISE AND RESPOND IMMEDIATELY.

Every act in this nature has a response in return, whether we recognise it or not. Sometimes, it gives positive response and sometimes it gives negative response. We always seek positive response, so first respond positively to the need of the time and make it a fundamental point, like our 'breathe', to do some good for the sake of the society around, under proper guidance, all in service of God, whose form is this society.
